1916 MAKES SPLENDID RECORD

Over 85 Per Cent Pass First French Oral

The first French Oral examination was conducted by President Thomas, Miss Schenk and Mr. Gray, on Friday afternoon and Saturday. President Thomas congratulated 1916 on the results of the Oral, speaking of it as one of the best ever held. Out of a class of sixty-six, 59.09 per cent passed, 5.54 per cent received Merit, and only 35.36 per cent failed.

The results were as follows:

Merit—L. Dillingham, Mrs. Jackson, A. Sears.

Passed—V. Baker, E. Brakely, M. G. Branson, E. Bryne, H. Chase, E. Clinton, C. Crowell, J. Deming, A. DeVenish, M. Dodd, C. Dowd, L. Garfield, C. Godley, M. Haskell, M. L. Hickman, F. Hitchcock, E. Holliday, G. Jones, E. Kelly, M. Keeps, R. Lautz, A. Lee, M. Loudon, V. deMacedo, M. McCay, C. McKeefrey, G. Moses, H. Porter, H. Riegel, H. Robertson, J. Ross, M. Russell, E. Stark, E. Strauss, E. Tinker, A. Van Horn, L. Worthington, M. Yost.

Failed—R. Alden, K. Batchelder, B. Benaberg, F. Bradley, I. Bridge, A. Burt, M. Chase, D. Deneen, R. Fordyce, N. Gall, A. Grabau, J. Greenwald, C. Heydemann, E. Hill, H. Holmes, C. Kellen, F. M. Kellogg, E. B. Kirk, K. McCollin, D. Packard, L. Sanderson, A. P. Smith, A. Werner, E. Wilson.

UNDERGRADUATE MEETING SETTLES MANY MATTERS

Red Cross Work to Be Continued

At a meeting of the Undergraduate Association on Wednesday night many matters of general interest were decided upon by the students. Before any motions were brought up for discussion, Miss Werner read the present rule concerning attendance at lectures and explained carefully the responsibility placed by it on the individual student. Red Cross work, Lost and Found, Parade Night, Concerts and other subjects were also discussed.

It was voted to continue the Red Cross work of last year on a more systematic basis, and to charge admission to all class plays again this year. The entrance fee will be ten cents.

Lost and Found is also to be more systematized. In order to assure a better business foundation for the bureau there will be a regular salary in connection with the position. Formerly the student in charge received the returns from the lost articles and the Undergraduate Association had to make up the deficit; now the receipts will go directly into the treasury and the salary will be fixed.

In view of the growing importance of the Denton Fiction Library, the salary for the librarian is to be increased from fifteen to twenty dollars a year. Dr. Savage is assisting the committee in charge; and already several new books have been bought.

The Concert Committee reported plans for four concerts to be given during the year if the pledges of the students are sufficient to insure financial success.

Parade Night Discussed

After much discussion about parade night, a sense of the meeting was taken that the Sophomores should not write a parody of the Freshman parade song unless they secure the tune or words before the band begins to play under the arch. Suggestions for other rules were withdrawn when it was pointed out that there was an unwritten law that the Sophomores could employ any means to discover the Freshman song, except going to the Freshman class meeting.

Telegram Sent to Vassar

At a second meeting of the Undergraduate Association held on Thursday night it was decided to send a telegram to Vassar wishing the students good luck for their anniversary celebration and during the entire year. The celebration now being held at Vassar is in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the college. There is to be a conference on undergraduate problems at which delegates from other colleges will discuss improvements and policies in student activities.

COURSE IN ENGLISH FICTION TO BE GIVEN IN THE SECOND SEMESTER

During the second semester Mr. Savage, of the English Department, will offer a new five-hour major course, which will deal with English fiction of the 19th Century. The main emphasis of the work will be thrown upon reading, although problems in research will receive some attention. Among the topics to be covered are the Elizabethan novella and novels and their relation to later English fiction; the antecedents of the 19th Century novel, romance and short-story; and the development of these types up to the present day. Special consideration will be given to picaresque fiction and to the detective story, and some account may be taken of foreign relationships. If opportunity offers, the art of narrative poetry may be discussed in the light of its relation to prose.

FIRST VARSITY PRACTISE

Players Promising—Teamwork Poor

Last Friday a squad of thirty hockey players turned out for the first Varsity practise of the year. Only about eight of them were regulars, but much of the new material is promising. 1919 was well represented by M. Peacock, A. Stiles, and M. Tyler. M. Peacock is a Rosemary star and M. Tyler an All-Philadelphian. G. Hearne, 1919, bids fair to be as good as her sisters. F. Hearne, 1910, and A. Hearne, 1913. G. Flanagan, 1918, was a find at halfback. She has always played fullback and her headwork in the new position astonished even Miss Applebee. The Juniors showed their usual heavy hitting. M. Branson distinguished herself for the Seniors.

However, although the standard for individual work was high, the teamwork was very poor and the offense so weak that the Varsity Committee intends to make decided changes in the forward line before another practise. Time and again the fullbacks had it all their own way and possible goals were missed. The prospect of scoring seemed to upset the attacking line.

After the practise M. Branson talked briefly on the value of keeping training. The penalty for breaking training, she said, would be dismissal from the squad and the loss of a chance for a B.M.

The next Varsity practise will be tomorrow, and the first game will be played against Lansdowne on Saturday.

NEW WOMENS' COLLEGE OPENED

Connecticut College has 125 Students.

The Connecticut College for Women at New London, Connecticut, opened on Saturday, October 9th, with exercises over which President Frederick H. Sykes, formerly a professor in Columbia University presided. The Governor of Connecticut, Marcus H. Holcomb, was present at the exercises.

The first class, numbering about 125, has already been enrolled. A group of buildings for administrative purposes, lectures, and dormitories has been completed. The college begins with an endowment of $1,500,000.

Josephine Sutton, who was a graduate student here last year, is secretary to the President, and Miss Proctor, formerly Junior Bursar, is Director of Residences at the College of Connecticut.

CANDY SALE FOR SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN.

An appeal for help has been made to the Bryn Mawr Equal Suffrage Chapter by the Women of Pennsylvania. Money is needed in order to send them help, and to pay for a life and drum corps to lead the Bryn Mawr delegates in the torch light parade on October 23d. There will be a candy sale Thursday and Friday in the Book Shop. President Thomas has presented the League with one hundred copies of the "New Republic" which will be sold for the aid of the women of Pennsylvania.

RECORD WEDNESDAY EVENING MEETING

New plans for the mid-week meeting of the Christian Association were announced at the first meeting held in the C. A. Room in the Library last Wednesday. There were seventy-six members present. Margaret Bacon, '18, who has charge of the meetings this year, has arranged a series of discussions on modern religious problems that are of vital interest. One great improvement over last year's plans is that each leader will make out a list of short daily Bible readings which will lead up to the next Wednesday's topic. This will enable those who are interested to give the subject on hand a little forethought.

Miss Applebee, opening the discussion, spoke of religion as the source of life, in that God Himself is Life and Energy, as the source of Life. She spoke of the abounding energy and power that comes from consciousness of union with Christ, but emphasized the fact that both in communities and in individuals this consciousness is in proportion to the fulfillment of Christ's command to follow him and share daily with him in his work of bringing the Kingdom of God on earth.

Helen Zimmerman, '17, has charge of the Bible reading slips, and will distribute them at each meeting. They can also be obtained from her room in Rockefeller.

HOW DOTH THE LITTLE BUSY BEE

In the spring of 1914, Dorothy Wolf, Bryn Mawr 1912, asked the students of Bryn Mawr to keep an account of every minute of their time in order that she might use the statistics thus obtained for a thesis which she was then writing. For the purpose of making it easier for the students to keep these accounts, she had special forms printed which were filled out and collected from each student every evening. The results of her investigations are as follows:

Averages Normal Week Day.

1. Routine—Sleep—8 hours 33 minutes; meals—1 hour 20 minutes; dressing—1 hour 20 minutes.
2. Academic work—7 hours 20 minutes.
3. Athletics—55 minutes.
4. Organized student activities—1 hour 5 minutes.
5. Personal social activities—1 hour 5 minutes.
6. Personal avocations—1 hour 45 minutes.

Averages for Four Items.

CONSTANCE KELLEN SENIOR PRESIDENT

Constance Kellen has been elected Senior president, Elizabeth Brakeley, vice-president, and Alice Van Horn, secretary. Miss Kellen was 1916's Freshman chairman and was elected Freshman president. Last year she was secretary of the Self Government Association. Miss Brakeley and Miss Van Horn retain their last year's positions as class officers.

Entered as second-class matter September 28, 1914, at the post office at Bryn Mawr, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879

As the result of 1918's competition for the editorial board of "The News," Marion O'Connor has been elected to the board. The work from 1918 was on the whole unusually good and the writing very careful. But in general the competition lacked originality both in the choice and in the treatment of subjects. The editorials written were rather too obvious. In writing-up college events all of the competitors but Miss O'Connor chose as their subjects either the Oral-Singing or the results of the Orals, subjects which gave little scope for originality or for interesting treatment.

A second competition for 1918 will be held later in the year.

This year's enrollment of American college students shows a large increase over that of the past. Yale and Harvard have larger entering classes than usual, Smith College has reached a total enrollment of 1708 students, and Columbia, now the largest university in the world, has nearly 20,000 students. This growth in colleges and universities is due chiefly to the fact that many who would otherwise study abroad must stay in this country and in part to the growing appreciation of the power gained by college training. Bryn Mawr, limited by the requirement of residence on the campus, remains practically the same in size from year to year. This means that no great influx of entering students necessitates violent readjustments of college rules and traditions, and that no preponderance of the under classes overwhelms those conservative tendencies which exist. However, it is reasonable to assume that the entering students selected by examination are from a larger group of girls every year and from those more eager to secure the benefits of a college education. With this in mind the student body should raise its standards of scholarship from year to year to keep pace with the growing appreciation of learning throughout the country. Since college development is made simpler by the stability of numbers, its development should be all the more sure.

One of the best features of the Eagles Mere Conference was the opportunity for discussing with the speakers, questions raised during the lectures. In view of this, the Religious Meetings Committee has decided to give the college a similar opportunity for discussion by arranging that the ministers, whenever possible, shall hold informal meetings after the Sunday evening service. Such informal talks will be of interest to those who take part in the discussions and much benefit may be derived from knowledge of the views held by the leading religious thinkers of the day.

for opinions expressed in this column)

The French Club.

To the Editor of "The College News":

In reply to the numerous inquiries about the French Club, I wish to say that it has been the custom for many years for the president for the current year to choose the president for the coming year. Thus the presidency has been handed down, each year to that member of the club considered most competent to fill the position for the coming year.

The French Club has no charter. It has been customary for the president to hold an initiation each year to which she invited all students whom she considered to have the ability to speak fluent French. From this group she selected those who spoke the best and were willing to speak at the meetings. The club has not been formed to allow the members of major and post major classes to improve their accents or to learn to speak French. It has been formed to give to those who already speak good French an opportunity to meet and discuss topics of current interest. The club is not a training class for faltering speakers; it does not wish for its members those who have obtained high grades in French classes but who for the most part cannot speak fluent French.

It will be formed along the customary lines this year, and no one who is not able and willing to speak fluent French will be admitted.

Mildred Buckner McCay.
Secretary of the French Club for the year 1914-1915.
Oct. 12, 1915.

Self-Government Spirit

To the Editor of "The College News":

The following extract from a letter written by a former President to the Student Government Association of another college for women at the opening of the year seems to me to state the case so excellently that I venture to send it to "The News" for the members of our Bryn Mawr Association to read:

"You wouldn't want any other kind of government than student government—and yet you can never have student government—that is, self-government, until every one of you pitches in with all her might and main to make it. And don't think you're giving up your own pleasure for a set of red-tape rules that nearly give you brain fever when you first read them; you're really making everything happier and safer for yourself and your neighbor. And if you came to college expecting to get big ideals and to mold your character into the best sort of person you were ever meant to be, then here's one of the biggest ideals in the wide world, masquerading under loyalty to an association, an Executive Board and a book of rules—it's the true Christian ideal of learning to live not for your own convenience, but for the convenience and progress of the whole community where you are. If you're able to see just that thing, and to say once in a while, 'I could do that thing alone, but we can't all do it, so I won't do it,' then I'm not worried about the prospect of a Student Government run by a few faithful souls who have seen the vision, and evaded by everybody else. But you must all promise to do that, or it won't work—and, oh, it must work. Student Government can't fail at this stage, because it has too many loyal hearts back of it, and too many willing hands have worked hard for it during all its existence. If everybody who has worked for it in the past loves it as I do, I can say truly, 'Shield it, love it, nourish it, for it is dear to many.' It's a trust that has been handed down to you. Don't fail us." Ruth Perkins.

ALUMNAE NOTES

Catherine Terry, '12, has announced her engagement to the Rev. William Neely Ross. Mr. Ross graduated from the Union Theological Seminary in 1915, and shortly before his graduation was called to the pastorate of the Chelsea Presbyterian Church, New York.

Margaret Sears, '14, has announced her engagement to Mr. Leonard C. Bigelow, of Framingham, Mass. Mr. Bigelow is a graduate of the Harvard Law School, '13. He is at present engaged in real estate business in Boston.

D. Bechtel, '14, K. Shippen, '14, M. Sears, '14, and M. Elliott, ex-'14, were bridesmaids at Eugenia Jackson's wedding last week.

Myra Elliott, '08 (Mrs. Samuel Vauclain), has a son, Samuel L. Vauclain, 3rd, born July 3rd.

Eleanor Allen, '14, is working for an A.M. at the University of California.

Mary Goodhue, '15, is teaching History and Latin at the Lunenburg High School, Mass.

Merle Sampson, '15, is teaching at the Girls' Latin School in Baltimore.

Katherine Snodgrass, '15, is head of the advertising staff of the Guarantee Trust Company, New York.

The Bryn Mawr students studying at Columbia this summer were: Atala Scudder, '15; Eleanor Dougherty, ex-'15; Elizabeth Wright, ex-'17; Lucile Davidson, '15; Ida Pritchett, '14; Leah Cadbury, '14; F. Crenshaw, '12; B. Houson, '12; E. Lamb, '12; Brita Horner, '07; K. Dodd, '14.

Edna Rapello, '15, and Virginia McKenny, '08, took the Summer School law course. Margaret Franklin, '08, last winter in an editorial in the "Saturday Evening Post," and in a letter to "The College News," urged women to take this course, so that an entering wedge might be made for admitting women to the Winter Law School, which at present is only open to men.

Dr. Janet Howell, '10, is studying at the Mount Wilson Observatory, California. Dr. Howell is the only woman who has worked there.

COLUMBIA ENROLLMENT LEADS UNIVERSITIES OF THE WORLD

With an enrollment of twenty thousand students this year, Columbia leads all the universities of the world. This includes the students in the new extension work among the ignorant, especially the immigrants, of lower New York. Before the war the University of Berlin was a near rival of Columbia, but the impossibility of study abroad has greatly increased the size of nearly all the American colleges.

PICTURES PRESENTED TO CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Two pictures have been given the Christian Association and may be seen in the Library. One sent by Miss Wiggins, is a picture of Mr. Roswell Bates, formerly the pastor of the Spring Street Church, New York, well known to many at Bryn Mawr. The other is a picture of Mr. Tonomura's mission in Japan, given by Miss Hartsborne.

CHANGE IN TENNIS TOURNAMENTS

Tennis Tournaments, both doubles and singles, will be played this fall instead of having the doubles in the spring. The singles will begin on Monday, October 18th. The reasons for this change are that the Captains and Board think it better to have all the tennis in the fall, when players are in better practice, and when there is only one other sport going on. E. B. Kirk has been elected captain for 1916 and R. Fordyce manager. M. Thompson, captain for 1917, and D. Kuhn, captain for 1918, were elected last spring. F. Branson is the representative for 1919.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Gymnasium Notice

Registration of exercise begins next week.

October 29th is the last day for physical appointments. A fine of two dollars is incurred for all appointments taken after that date. Students unable to take their appointment on account of illness should notify Miss Applebee on the day of the appointment.

Reception for Presbyterians

Be sure not to make any engagements for Friday evening, October 22d. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pierce have very kindly invited all who are in any way interested in the Presbyterian Church to spend an informal evening with them at their house in Haverford, on that date. All will be most cordially welcomed, whether they are regular attendants at the church or only semi-occasional visitors. Buses will be at Pembroke Arch at quarter of eight.

Chairman of Federation Committee.

Christian Association Library Rejuvenated

For years the Christian Association Library has been used but little, and small wonder, when the books are so badly catalogued that under Non-Christian Religions one finds "The History of the Episcopal Church!" We hope that every one will co-operate with the Bible Study Committee in reorganizing the arrangement of the books contained on the Christian Association shelves. If in your browsing through the stacks you come across a book on a foreign mission or on a general religious subject, kindly give its title and number to Helen Maxwell, Radnor 1.

Chairman of Bible Study Committee.

Prize for Report

All who wish to enter the competition for the best "Bulletin Board Report," hand in their names and full addresses to M. Gardiner, P. E., or L. Garfield, Rock. The reports are to be on articles, or on books, on the work of the World's Student Christian Federation in various parts of the world, and are to be very short, written, or typewritten, on a single sheet of paper and illustrated if desired. Each report will be placed on the C. A. Bulletin Board in Taylor and left there for a week. At the end of the year a prize will be given to the writer of the best report.

Chairman of Federation Committee.

JUNK

Don't throw anything away! Give it to the Junk collector. Somebody needs it!

CAMPUS NOTES

"What foundations Paul built on, what motive he followed for the purpose of changing social conditions, and whether these can be used to-day," will be subject of Bishop Lloyd's address next Sunday evening. Immediately following the service Dr. Lloyd will hold an informal meeting for open discussion.

Miss Ellen Churchill Semple's subject for her lecture next Friday evening is "The Barrier Boundary of the Mediterranean Basin and Its Northern Breaches." Miss Semple is a member of the American Association of Geographers; her special line of work has been economic geography and geology. Next to Dr. Bascom, Miss Semple stands as the foremost woman geologist in this country.

On account of ill health Dr. Connor has been granted a year's leave of absence. Mr. C. Clinton Bramble, A.M., Dickinson College, Fellow in Mathematics, Johns Hopkins University, has been appointed as Lecturer in Mathematics in his place.

Dr. Oscar F. W. Fernsemer, Ph.D., University of Munich, is Lecturer in German Literature as a substitute for Dr. Jessen.

Dr. Lasch and Dr. Ferguson will be in the German Oral this week.

The Rev. Andrew Mutch has returned to the Presbyterian Church. Dr. and Mrs. Mutch are at home every Thursday to the College members of the church.

Miss Price, former assistant to the Librarian, is taking a second year course at the Albany Library School. Miss M. Watson, who is a sister of Louise Watson, '12, Business Manager of the College, is taking her place.

Graduate Club: Helen Harvey, A.B., Oberlin, has been elected Athletic Representative. Miss Harvey was the 1915 Class Champion in Tennis at Oberlin last year. The first graduate hockey practice was held last Saturday. A tennis tournament has already been started, and it is planned to have a Graduate vs. Varsity tournament before long.

Miss Sue Avis Blake has been appointed Demonstrator in Physics, Miss Edith Lanman, Demonstrator in Chemistry.

1919: Gertrude Hearne has been elected Hockey Representative.

Emilie Wagner, ex-1916 has announced her engagement to Mr. Donald Baird. Mr. Baird is studying for his M.A. at Haverford this winter.

Miss Helen E. Wleand has been appointed college organist.

DR. SAUTELLE PREACHES ON DISCOVERIES IN RELIGION

Dr. William Sautelle, of Troy, New York preached in Chapel on Sunday evening, on personal discoveries in religion. The first hymn of the service was sung as a recessional and the choir marched to the places from the back of the room.

In outlining the subject, Dr. Sautelle spoke of the great experiences through which men have discovered God, stressing especially David's conception of the great Shepherd. Everyone, he said must work out from his own experience the fundamental truths which the prophets and teachers of the past have handed down. David, in his long nights on the Judean hillsides, came to realize that his God must have a love infinitely more watchful than his own in his care of his sheep; John through his intimate experience of Christ's love gained his great conception of the redeeming love of God. So it was with an old life guard on the Cape Cod coast, as Dr. Sautelle described him. He had discarded the religion of his parents but in his long night walks along the coast he became convinced that there must be some supreme cause ordering the wonderful workings of the universe. As he worked out his ideas according to his scanty knowledge, he reasoned that this Power must care even more for conscious beings like himself than for all the forces of nature.

LOST AND FOUND

"Lost and Found" has extended its domain in the basement of Taylor Hall over a few additional shelves and drawers. There will be found the proper place for all lost articles which will eventually reach the proper owners, as the articles are to be carefully classified and no one will be permitted to disturb the order of the arrangement. Between half past one and half past two, the only time when lost articles may be claimed, the "bureau" expects to do a thriving business. The reforms instituted are expected to make "Lost and Found" of real value to the College community. Anna Lee, '16, is in charge.

THE STUDENTS' BUILDING COMMITTEE

The new members of the committee to take charge of raising money for the benefit of the Students' Building Fund have been elected. They are: for '16, H. Robertson, and A. Grabau; for '17, J. Pauling, and M. Hodge; for '18, L. Richardson, M. Cordingley; for '19, M. Martin and A. Styles.

COMMITTEE CARES FOR BULLETIN BOARDS

There has been a new committee formed under the Undergraduate Association whose duties are to keep the bulletin boards in order. Old notices will be taken down and those which are still of current interest will be kept in prominent places. The committee is: R. Fordyce, chairman, H. Allport, A. Shaffer, H. Riegel, T. Howell, E. Faulkner, K. McCollin.

THE MAIDS' LIBRARY

In the Maids' sitting room in each hall, there is a collection of books and magazines called the Maids' Library. This year we are anxious to make these libraries better than ever, and we need your help. Books and magazines of every description are desired, novels, history, mythology, Vogue, Harpers, anything that will while away long winter evenings. If you will tell M. Scott, '18, Rockefeller, or myself when you have any contributions, we shall be glad to call for them.

N. McFaden, Chairman.

During the summer the managers of the most important college papers voted not to have any liquor advertisements in their papers. This means a decided change in the advertising sections.
